Now! The Amazing Facts about

BALDNESS

...AND WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT

The following facts are brought to the attention of the public because of a widespread belief that nothing can be done about hair loss. This belief has no basis in medical fact. Worse, it has condemned many men and women to needless baldness by their neglect to treat certain accepted causes of hair loss.

There are six principal types of hair loss, or alopecia, as it is known in medical terms:

1. Alopecia from diseases of the scalp
2. Alopecia from other diseases or from an improper functioning of the body
3. Alopecia of the aged (senile baldness)
4. Alopecia areata (loss of hair in patches)
5. Alopecia of the young (premature baldness)
6. Alopecia at birth (congenital baldness)

Senile, premature and congenital alopecia cannot be helped by anything now known to modern science. Alopecia from improper functioning of the body requires the advice and treatment of your family physician.

BUT MANY MEDICAL AUTHORITIES NOW BELIEVE A SPECIFIC SCALP DISEASE IS THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF HAIR LOSS.

This disease is called Seborrhea and can be broadly classified into two clinical forms with the following symptoms:

1. DRY SEBORRHEA: The hair is dry, lifeless, and without gloss. A dry flaky dandruff is usually present with accompanying itching. Hair loss is considerable and increases with the progress of this disease.

2. OILY SEBORRHEA: The hair and scalp are oily and greasy. The hair is slightly sticky to the touch and has a tendency to mat together. Dandruff takes the form of head scales. Scalp is usually itchy. Hair loss is severe with baldness as the end result.

Many doctors agree that to NEGLECT these symptoms of DRY and OILY SEBORRHEA is to INVITE BALDNESS.

Seborrhea is believed to be caused by three germ organisms — staphylococcus albus, pityrosporum ovale, and acnes bacillus.

These germs attack the sebaceous gland causing an abnormal working of this fat gland. The hair follicle, completely surrounded by the enlarged diseased sebaceous gland, then begins to atrophy. The hair produced becomes smaller and smaller until the hair follicle dies. Baldness is the inevitable result. (See illustration.)

But seborrhea can be controlled, particularly in its early stages. The three germ organisms believed to cause seborrhea, can and should be eliminated before they destroy your normal hair growth.

A post-war development, Comate Medicinal Formula kills these three germ organisms on contact. Proof of Comate's germ-killing properties has been demonstrated in laboratory tests recently conducted by one of the leading testing laboratories in America. (Complete report on file and copies are available on request.)

When used as directed, Comate Medicinal Formula controls seborrhea—stimulates the flow of blood to the scalp—helps stop scalp itch and burn—improves the appearance of your hair and scalp—helps STOP HAIR LOSS due to seborrhea. Your hair looks more attractive and alive.

You may safely follow the example of thousands who first were skeptical, then curious, and finally decided to avail themselves of Comate Medicinal Formula.

A Few of the Many Grateful Expressions By Users of Comate Medicinal Formula

"My hair was coming out for years and I tried everything. Nothing stopped it until I tried Comate. Now my hair has stopped coming out. It looks so much thicker. My friends have noticed my hair and they all say it looks so much better."
—Mrs. R.E.J., Stevenson, Ala.

"Your hair formula got rid of my dandruff; my head does not itch any more. I think it is the best of all of the formulas I have used."
—E.E., Hamilton, Ohio.

"Your formula is everything you claim it to be and the first 10 days trial freed me of a very bad case of dry seborrhea."
—J.E.M., Long Beach, Calif.

"I do want to say that just within five days I have obtained a great improvement in my hair. I do want to thank you and the Comate Laboratories for producing such a wonderful and amazing formula."
—M.M., Johnstown, Pa.

"I have found almost instant relief. My itching has stopped with one application."
—J.N., Stockton, Calif.

"My hair looks thicker, not falling out like it used to. Will not be without Comate in the house."
—R.W., Lonsdale, R. I.

"I haven't had any trouble with dandruff since I started using Comate."
—L.W.W., Galveston, Tex.

"This formula is everything if not more than you say it is. I am very happy with what it's doing for my hair."
—T.J., Las Cruces, New Mexico

"I find it stops the itch and retards the hair fall. I am thankful for the help it has given me in regard to the terrible itching."
—R.B.L., Philadelphia, Pa.

"The bottle of Comate I got from you has done my hair so much good. My hair has been coming out and breaking off for about 21 years. It has improved so much."
—Mrs. J.E., Lisbon, Ga.

Today these benefits are available to you just as they were to these sincere men and women when they first read about Comate. If your hair is thinning, over-dry or over-oily—if you are troubled with dandruff with increasing hair loss—you may well be guided by the laboratory tests and the experience of thousands of grateful men and women.

Remember, if your hair loss is due to Seborrhea, Comate CAN and MUST help you. If it is due to causes beyond the reach of Comate Medicinal Formula, you have nothing to lose because our GUARANTY POLICY assures the return of your money unless delighted. So why delay when that delay may cause irreparable damage to your hair and scalp. Just mail the coupon below.

The Courtship Of Ma Mac Sleezy

Ma MacSleezy's father, old Ezra, was about as ornery a mountaineer as ever sucked on sorghum. His nearest neighbor lived in a cabin ten miles away, and from the moment this man had driven his first stake Ezra had resented the intrusion on his privacy. When this newcomer tried to pay a friendly visit, Ezra drove him off with singing lead.

Mountaineers avoided old Ezra and felt sorry for his daughter who kept house for him. No one knew much about this girl excepting what an occasional hunter would report after seeing her on the mountain trails.

The legend built up among mountain folks that this girl was a sweet, charming, dark haired lass who was held virtual prisoner by her mean and ill-tempered father. On his occasional supply buying trips to the village, old Ezra would greet any inquiries with snarls and glares of fury.

And then one spring day it happened. The Shootin' Creek housewives were gossiping in front of Clem Martin's general store and their menfolk were lolling about on the porch when, from the woods across the way, stepped Ezra's daughter. Everyone recognized her at once as she had all of her father's features. She was dark haired, all right, but from the moment she appeared, it was obvious the hunters had greatly exaggerated her charm and beauty.

Every eye followed her as she strode across the clearing and she returned each stare coldly. She climbed the rickety steps to the store porch in silence and was about to enter when Eben MacSleezy strode out through the door. The two of them stopped short, as the story goes, and looked each other straight in the eye.

Suddenly, Eben MacSleezy's mouth dropped open and his eyes popped wider and wider until the onlookers were sure they were going to flip out. Then his whole expression took on that sick-cow look so long identified with a person falling in love. Eben's gaunt frame began to shake and tremble violently and to the people of Shootin' Creek who'd always known him as an ornery, mean, raw-boned young ridgerunner, it was a sight to behold.

And the girl, too, was being violently affected by this meeting. Her face lighted a great, toothy smile, then as suddenly, was grim and sour. Then as quickly, she broke out into hysterical laughter and as she rocked with nervous mirth, she cracked her knuckles one by one.

The village folk watched this chance meeting in open-mouthed awe for a moment. Then, almost spontaneously, they burst into gales of laughter.

The stories differ on what happened then, but they all agree that within the next few minutes, the dark haired girl and young, Mac-Sleezy took on the whole assemblage in a wild free-for all. Sheriff Crawfisher finally restored order but not before all of the men and not a few of the women had acquired souvenirs of the fray in the form of black eyes, bruises and cuts. When the smoke had cleared, the couple had vanished.

Well, Eben and the dark haired girl were married that summer. Old Ezra in a surprisingly gracious display of warmth invited the whole community to the ceremony. He announced the wedding would take place in the glade behind his cabin at ten in the morning and that after the vows had been exchanged, an open house, with food, drink and music would be held until midnight.

It was a gala affair and Ezra, Eben and the new Mrs. MacSleezy were almost gushing in their friendliness and warmth. Everyone admits today that it was the gayest party ever held around Shootin' Creek. Whole pigs had been barbecued. There were hush puppies, black-eyed peas, sorghum and corn muffins galore. There was punch of a dozen combinations and Lamentin' Luke and his Hillbilly Band never played better.

The party was at its gayest when the clock began striking midnight. When it stopped striking, there was an instant of silence, then the loud report of a gun being fired. All eyes turned to where Ezra, Eben and the girl stood on a rock overlooking the gathering. Suddenly, Ezra started to yell angrily — and it was the old, surly, mean Ezra.

"It's over, you ridge rats. Git off'n this mountain afore we run yo' off. Git!"

"Yo' heard him! Git!," echoed Ma Mac-Sleezy.

"An' be quick about it," added Eben Mac-Sleezy.

— The End —
